Canadian daily readings on archdiocesan and parish websites.

Parishioners throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto can now find the Canadian daily readings on their archdiocesan and parish websites.

Working with our publishing partners at Living with Christ/Novalis, the Archdiocese of Toronto has been able to include this new feature on the www.archtoronto.org website and all parish websites within the archdiocesan website network. By partnering with Living in Christ, we are ensuring website visitors will find the same readings they would hear in their local parish Mass. The Daily Readings tab can be found under the Our Catholic Faith drop-down menu on the archdiocesan and parish websites within the archtoronto.org network.

"I am Joseph, your Brother" – The shifting understanding of the Jewish-Catholic relationship in the last 100 years

Tuesday, January 15, 2019 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Blessed Trinity Parish Hall
3220 Bayview Ave., Toronto

Featuring Nathan Gibbard, Director of Ryerson Catholic Campus Ministry. For many Catholics, it is almost a given to think of Jews and Catholics as brothers in some sense of the term but this was not always the case. Only within the last 100 years has a fraternal understanding of our relationship of Jews and Catholics as brothers been worked out in any depth, especially through the documents of the Vatican. Yet a fraternal relationship, given the background of biblical brothers, is not without some tension itself. This talk will present the history of the 'brother' metaphor in understanding Jewish-Catholic relationship. All are welcome.
