WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

Be a refuge of HOPE!

The Tenth "World Day of the Poor" will be held on Sunday November 15, 2026, including the 5 pm mass on Saturday November 14. The theme this year is "The Lord is the refuge of the poor" (Psalm 14:6). In his message, Pope Leo XIV reminds us that poverty isn't just about material deprivation. Many people experiencing poverty are also deprived of a voice, a place in society, and the dignity of being seen and heard. For the weekend of November 14-15, St. Gregory's will be inviting a few members of the community who work directly with those in need, to speak to our parishioners about the charitable organizations themselves, and what they strive to provide for practical needs and personal dignity. The charities we hope will gently inspire awareness and possibly to consider giving what we can to continue the good work. We hope to list the names of the organizations in next week's bulletin and when they will be visiting us. Thank you.
